Our Family Story Quilt

Use the prompts and space below to create pictures that tell a story about your family. Then cut the squares out and “stitch” them together using colored paper and glue.

This is what my family looks like.

My family is special because ______________________________.

Sometimes my family ______________________________.

I love my family this much.