

I Have Hope

When we have hope we know what we want, we believe in our ability to get there, and we stay motivated as we get closer to this goal. Use the space provided to write hope statements. You might use a different color for each member of the family.

I want to _____, and I believe I can!

I will _____ to reach my goal.

