

Sing the Wonderful!

The Wonderful In You

Elmo really loves to share. (I think that's wonderful.)
It lets you know that Elmo cares. (I think that's wonderful!!)
You're as kind as you can be, and you do it naturally.
When I look at you, do you know what I see?
I see the wonderful in you!
The wonderful in you, the way you think.
The words you say, the things you do.
I'm proud of who you are, you know it's true!
And that makes Elmo feel proud, too.
I'm so full of wonder (ooooh!) at all the wonderful in you.

I made this heart for you, Mami. (Aye, it's wonderful!)
It shows how much you mean to me.
I think that's wonderful, there's such love inside of you.
And you make others feel love, too.
It's part of the wonderful (lo maravilloso!) that makes you, you!
I see all the wonderful in you!
The wonderful in you, the way you think.
The words you say, the things you do.
I'm proud of who you are, you know it's true!
And that makes me feel so proud, too.
I'm so full of wonder (ooooh!) at all the wonderful in you.

I learn so much from you, like how to build my towers tall.
And every day you build the most important things of all.
You're building confidence and you're building friendships, too.
And I'm so thrilled to see you build... the wonderful in you!

I see all the wonderful in you (that feels so wonderful!)
The way you think, the words you say, the things you do.
I'm proud of who you are, you know it's true.
And that makes me feel proud, too.
I'm so full of wonder (ooooh!) at all the wonderful in you.
Yes, I'm so full of wonder, just proud and full of wonder.
I'm so full of wonder at all the wonderful in you.
