

We Got This!

Children can color in Mama Bird and Baby Bird as you color the background. As you work together, you might ask:

- “What do you think Mama Bird and Baby Bird are saying to each other?”
- “Why do you think the birds look so happy?”
- “When was a time you felt like this? What could we do right now that would make us feel good?”

Home Is Where the Hugs Are!

Children can color in Lily and her mom as you color the background. As you work together, you might:

- Ask, “How is Lily feeling in this picture? Why do you think she’s feeling that way?”
- Remind your child that home is not just a house or apartment—it’s wherever the love is. Together, you can get through anything.
- Take a break for a big hug!
