

Read with Me

One of the best ways to connect with young children is to share a story. Color this page and cut out each section for your own special bookmark!

Use funny voices and act out your favorite parts!

Get comfy, and take turns holding the book and turning pages.

Try to tell a story together, just using the pictures in a book!